

her reflection - psalm 27:1

In quiet moments of prayer ...

Do you pray for the courage to be a light in the darkness?

She blooms in His light like a Sonflower.

Do you reflect rays of sunshine onto others in seasons you may not agree with?
How can you turn darkness into an opportunity to bloom brightly?

She lets His light guide her every interaction ...

Do you struggle with judging others, especially during seasons like Halloween?
What are you most afraid of? Are you worried about the judgment of others (especially sisters-in-Christ) towards participation in Trick-or-Treating?
