

Prayer for her

HEALING

Heavenly Father, may Your healing light of grace surround me, bringing tranquility to my anxious mind and solace to my fatigued soul . . . repairing what is fractured and rejuvenating what has been lost.

May Your gentle touch ease my discomfort and may my body be revitalized, infused with vitality, strength and resilience, leading me towards brighter days.

Grant me the strength to endure, the courage to face each day, and the patience towards recovery and healing . . . finding solace in the love and support of those around me.

May I always seek Your comfort and healing during times of heartache and despair, reminding me that I am never alone on this journey.

With each new day may my faith remain unwavering, knowing that in Your care I will find healing and serenity.

In Your Divine Name I Pray, Amen.

Jeremiah 30:17