

Prayer for her

LOVE

Heavenly Father, may Your boundless love envelop me providing comfort and peace in every aspect of my life. May Your everlasting love serve as my guiding light, illuminating my path and reassuring me of Your unwavering presence.

May Your love surround me like a protective embrace, offering solace in times of trouble and heartache, and joy and gratitude in moments of happiness.

In the tapestry of life, may my love echo thru to others. May I always be reminded of the power of a loving smile, the warmth of a loving gentle embrace, the comfort of loving words of hope, and the impact of a loving selfless act.

Fill my heart with Your truth, reminding me that I am cherished, valued, and loved. May I always love how uniquely designed I am, recognizing my beauty both inside and out . . . wonderfully created by You.

In Your Divine Name I Pray, Amen.
